

Alexandra Webber

Conductor – Senior String Orchestra

Violin Tutor – Intermediate String Orchestra

Alexandra is a 21 year-old Spanish born violinist who received her first violin lessons from her father at the age of 10. At the age of 16, Alexandra gained a scholarship to continue her studies at Chetham's School of Music in Manchester with Ruth Hahn.

During her time at Chetham's her passion for chamber music gave her the opportunity to receive masterclasses from Graham Oppenheimer, Roger Chase and Jon Thorne, also playing alongside renowned musicians such as Michael Cox and the Brodsky Quartet in chamber music concert series.

After receiving a number of offers from prestigious music colleges, she decided to study in Glasgow. Alexandra is currently in her fourth year at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland (RCS) studying with Jane Atkins and Greg Lawson. During her time in RCS she has been awarded first prize in the Mabel Glover String Quartet Competition (2017 and 2019) and highly commended in the Governor's Recital Prize for Chamber Music.

Alexandra has performed in collaborations with the Scottish Ensemble, the Hebrides Ensemble and Scottish Opera during her years at the Conservatoire.
